CONSTRUCTION WORK OKAYED FOR REC PARK

Gettysburg's Recreation Board Monday evening authorized Director Ray Thompson to obtain bids for construction of two shuffle board courts at the Recreation Park.

The board plans to locate the courts in the southern part of Recreation Field, designed in general more for adult recreation than for the use of youngsters. The courts will be near the pavilions placed in the section for picnics and club meetings.

Approval for the work was given by the borough council at its recent meeting and it is anticipated that the courts will be in place by early summer.

ATTENDANCE UP

Thompson's report on the winter recreation program showed attendance of 7,130 in 1965 compared to 6,329 in 1964.

Because of the greatly increased interest on the part of adults and youngsters in the winter program "we are running ahead of budget for the first part of the year," Thompson told the board. "However," he said, "we should come out at the end of the year within the budget."

About 25 members of Phi Delta Theta fraternity will volunteer their services to work at the Recreation Park April 28 and 29 to help ready the playground for the summer season, Thompson reported. He also listed the number of facilities, placing of equipment, painting and preparing it, now underway preparatory to the opening of the summer playground season June 9.

SCHEDULE SOFTBALL

The board expressed its appreciation to the National Guard Armory board for use of the armory for the Fourth Grade basketball. The program was described as "excellent" and plans were made to arrange for use of the armory, if possible, again next winter.

It was announced that the schedule has been completed for the slow pitch softball league to begin May 6 and end September 2. Seven teams will be in the

Big Bombers Pound Roads, Spans In NVN

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — American and Vietnamese fighter-bombers hammered away at North Vietnamese roads and bridges again today.

One Navy propeller-driven skyraider was downed and its pilot killed. A U.S. Army officer was killed in fighting in South Viet Nam, and an American civilian died at a Viet Cong roadblock, raising the number of American dead in two days to 12.

Three Skyraiders left the carrier Hancock before dawn on a half-hour strafing run from the 17th Parallel northward along Highway 1.

SMASH CONVOY

A U.S. spokesman said the planes smashed a convoy and two of the planes returned safely to the Hancock. The New China News Agency claimed that North Vietnamese groundfire downed two of the planes.

The spokesman said the planes encountered heavy groundfire during the initial part of the raid, but that there was no firing at the time the Skyraider crashed.

Later in the day, U.S. and Vietnamese air force fighter-bombers conducted three strikes against the My Duc bridge, south of Dong Hoi, and convoys on Highways 1, 8 and 12. All aircraft returned safely.

CAUSE LANDSLIDE

On Highway 1, 140 miles south of Hanoi, American jets caused heavy landslides with some 20 tons of bombs, a spokesman said. Antiaircraft fire was heavy in one area, but no Communist planes were sighted.

The My Duc bridge was reported still standing, but its approaches were dotted with craters.

The Army officer was killed in heavy fighting in Binh Dinh Province, on a peninsula opposite the coastal city of Qui Nhon, 280 miles northeast of Saigon. The officer was fatally wounded while helping with the evacuation of Vietnamese wounded.

HERE AND THERE

This is National YWCA Week, a week of rededication by YWCA members in all 50 states to those ideals of Christian organization founded more than a century ago.

The theme for the week is "For Today's World, Invest in Yourself—Join the YWCA." The YWCA is a service organization; it serves the community by serving the individual.

The self-investment offered by the YWCA is also an investment in the community, for a better community and a better society.

The Gettysburg YWCA conducts an active program for approximately 175 girls of teenage who meet weekly groups with Gettysburg College coeds as advisors. Many other groups use the facilities of the building, such as the Annie Danner Club, Business and Professional Women's Club, Woman's Club, Senior Citizens Club, Civic Nursing Association, etc.

For many years the Rotary Club held its weekly dinner meeting on Monday evenings at the Y and the club has done much for the organization in the way of material gifts and financial support.

To open the program this week, the Y entertained the Rotary Club at dinner Monday evening, with the president and vice-president as hostesses, and with members of the Annie Danner Club serving.

Today is open house at the Y and the public is invited to visit the building. In the evening Annie Danner Club members, in costume, will serve as hostesses and entertainment will be provided at intervals. Other events have been planned for each day and evening during the week.

BIGLER CHURCH IS FILLED FOR THIRD SERVICE

The new St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Biglerville, Monday evening was filled to capacity with approximately 400 members and guests for community night, third in a series of four programs to dedicate the new church.

Rev. Robert H. Sternat, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, Mt. Wolf, Pa., son of Dr. H. W. Sternat, Biglerville, who served the local pastorate for 38 years, was the guest minister. His topic was "Look Up, Laugh, Love and Lift," based on the four L's in abundant life from the hymn "I Would Be True." He urged the congregation to look up through life as "I will lift my eyes unto the hills."

Of laughter he said, "A bitter laugh, a laugh at other people, is not Christ-like, but a laugh often is more Christ-like than the recitation of a 100 verses of scripture." He said, "Love knits a family together, and never is a man so tall as when he stoops to lift another."

SERVICES WEDNESDAY

Mrs. John C. Brown and Charles L. Yost sang "How Lovely Is Thy Dwelling Place." The organist was Mrs. Waybright Thomas, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Sternat and sister of the guest minister.

The last service in connection with the dedication will be held Wednesday evening with a concert of sacred music by the Gettysburg Lutheran Seminary Choir under the direction of Robert Clippinger. The public is invited to the service at 7:30.

PAY TRIBUTE TO MEMORY OF ATTY. BROWN

The presidents of three institutions of Gettysburg today paid tribute to the memory of the late Atty. Richard A. Brown who died in the York Hospital Monday morning.

Clark S. Smith, president of the board of directors of the Warner Hospital, with which institution Mr. Brown was long associated, said:

"As a director for years, a two-term president and co-chairman of two campaigns for capital funds, Richard A. Brown's service to the hospital was notable. Of equal importance, however, were his continuing interest in the hospital and his concept of its place in and responsibilities to the community. He never failed to accept assignments with utmost willingness. We shall miss his vision and his energetic devotion to the Warner Hospital. He had much to do with its development and progress in the past decade."

Atty. Franklin R. Bigham, president of the Adams County Bar Association, issued the following statement this noon:

"Richard A. Brown was a leading member of the Adams County Bar. He was an active practitioner and gave freely of his time in support of Bar Association activities and projects. Throughout the 28 years of his practice, he held the respect of the many lawyers with whom he dealt."

Dr. Donald R. Heiges, president of the Lutheran Theological Seminary, made the following statement:

"The Lutheran Theological Seminary is shocked and grieved by the death of Richard A. Brown. Since 1942 he served as the seminary's attorney, and over a period of 23 years he competently handled the institution's legal matters. During the past year he gave much time and attention to revisions in the seminary's charter and bylaws. At the time of his death he was engaged in the final steps of approval of a new charter."

"Mr. Brown's interest in the seminary, however, went far beyond legal matters. He was, first of all, a faithful friend of the

Tilting Storage Tank Of 107,000 Gallons Of Gas Is New Threat To Flood

By HARVEY BREUSCHER
LA CROSSE, Wis. (AP) — A tilting storage tank laden with 107,000 gallons of gasoline added an awesome fire peril today to the woes of La Crosse, braced for the record flood crest sweeping down the Mississippi River valley.

"God, can you imagine fire moving along on this crest," said a police officer assigned to the emergency guard over the tank farm where 15 million gallons of gasoline are stored.

A 75-foot rupture in a protecting dike poured eight feet of water over the complex Monday, and Fire Chief Fred Genz Sr. said the potential danger increased with the exposure of the tanks to flood debris.

While the self-sealing tanks are not leaking, the water around them is coated by an oil slick from a nearby auto junk yard.

KIWANIS CLUB GIVES NOTICE ON HALLOWEEN

Gettysburg Kiwanis Club today gave notice that it will be unable to sponsor the annual Halloween parade and associated activities locally this year.

Decision to give the notice came at a special meeting of the board of Kiwanis Monday night at the Holiday Inn. The board noted that the club has only 26 members, insufficient to carry out a project of the magnitude of the town's Halloween observance.

President Edwin Kahn issued a prepared statement "in order that the citizens of Gettysburg and the surrounding communities might understand this action of the Kiwanis Board."

EXPLAINS SITUATION

Kahn's statement follows: "For a number of years, a committee, consisting of the civic and social clubs, merchants and interested citizens, combined their efforts for this annual event. Due to lack of sufficient interest in this committee last year, it was dissolved."

"As a community project, the Gettysburg Kiwanis Club undertook the responsibility of promoting the total Halloween program for the year 1964. With the help of many clubs and dedicated citizens, last year's event was considered successful."

"The elementary school poster contest was participated in by approximately 100 grade school children."

HAS BEEN SUCCESSFUL

"The queen pageant and talent contest was held in the college Student Union Building and provided an evening of high-quality entertainment for those in attendance, as well as an educational experience for the young ladies who participated."

"The parade, with its floats, bands, marching units and hundreds of individual entries, was enjoyed by many thousands of adults and children from all over the county and adjoining areas."

"In summarizing this annual event, we contend that it has been successful and is anticipated by both youth and adults each year."

"There is, however, a matter of

The class has been meeting with the Civil War Round Table on the nights of its monthly meetings, and on assumption that the session was on the fourth Thursday the class last week was instructed to be at the GAR home, E. Middle St., this Thursday evening at 8.

Since the Civil War Round Table meeting will not be held until Thursday, April 29, Sheds' class will meet this Thursday evening at Room 204 in the Gettysburg Senior High School. Among business of the session will be distribution of graduation certificates.

DEVELOP NEW

$600 an acre, our custom is to assess for lakes and such open areas at the rate of tillable soil." Assessments on the lots and cottages would be on the basis of assessment for such purposes.

Gibson said that after the development is established and the lots sold the corporation would establish a corporation of the lot owners which would then take over the lake and see to its future maintenance.

Gibson said his corporation now has options on approximately 700 acres of land. He showed the commissioners a map of the proposed development, listed as among the land on which options have been secured as that of Dayhoff, Scott, Maddox and Powell.

PRICED AT $260,700

The commissioners set a price of $6,000 an acre, or $260,700 on the 39½-acre part of the county home land north of the home and extending to Howard Ave., between the Harrisburg and Biglerville Roads. The plot would not contain the potters' field on Barlow's Knoll, but would extend to the fences along the battlefield avenue. On the south side the plot would be bounded by the county home lane extending from the jail eastward to the county home barn. The lane turns at that spot, but the line would continue straight east, thus putting the county home barn in the plot to be sold. The suggested price was made when Lee M. Hartman, local realtor, said he has an interested buyer. Discussion indicated the buyer wished to purchase only about 18 acres, and it is expected the commissioners will have further discussions on the matter.

SCRANTON TO TALK ABOUT CITY FUTURE

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton, for the third time this year, personally takes his case before a joint session of the General Assembly today to discuss his outlook on "The Future of Pennsylvania Cities."

On another front, the Democratic legislative leadership is pledging too assume the initiative this week in presenting party proposals on important matters.

The General Assembly returns to work after a week's recess for the Easter holiday with the Senate convening at 3 p.m., the House an hour later.

URBAN PROBLEMS

Scranton's 5:30 p.m. appearance, to be broadcast and telecast across the state at varying times, will concentrate on the problems facing urban areas as the governor sees them and what action he thinks state government should take in this field.

An aide said Scranton would outline needs and proposed counter-action in the areas of urban renewal, mass transportation and industrial development.

Earlier this year, the governor went before the legislature to outline his views on the State of the Commonwealth and the status and future of highway building in Pennsylvania.

FIRST OF FIVE

The urban area message is the first of five major addresses he plans to present to the General Assembly between now and the end of May, either in person or on paper.

Next week Scranton is scheduled to unveil his program for education in Pennsylvania this year. Aides said his message is expected to contain a recommendation to revise the school subsidy formula and provide additional financial aid to school districts.

A bill to that same effect already has been introduced in the Democratic House.

DEMOCRATIC PROPOSALS

His other messages are to touch on, aides said, the questions of state government reorganization; increased use of computers; traffic safety and the all-important motor fund budget.

The Democrats, meanwhile, made public their plans to introduce on a weekly basis a series of party-sponsored legislative proposals.

Sources close to the leadership in the House indicated that the first of these proposals would deal with education.

Others are expected in the areas of economic growth, health and welfare, transportation, recreation and tourism and taxation.

"IN THANKFULNESS"

Sometimes in my quest for fortune . . . I lose sight of priceless things . . . I'm prone to take for granted . . . that which gives my old heart wings . . . I overlook the blessings . . . that God has given me . . . for I'm in a torrid race . . . and life's a wild, wild sea . . . but when the waves of discontent . . . cause me to take a fall . . . I turn about and seek the things . . . with power to enthrall . . . and as I count my blessings . . . in not too long I find . . . the treasures I had all the while . . . give me the most peace of mind . . . and as I ready once again . . . for still another race . . . I go my way in thankfulness . . . for my God's loving grace.

KIWANIS CLUB

"Even though many contributions were received from organizations and individuals last year, and many man hours of time donated by dozen of interested people outside the club, Kiwanis still needed to contribute over $600 to cover the expenses. This financial obligation for a club of 26 members, who already are committed to 4-H, Girl and Boy Scout projects, a Big-Little League ball team, library and vocational contributions, along with charitable gifts of food and clothing to the needy, overtaxes its resources.

"It may be interesting to know that the Halloween festivities, in order to be successful, require a budget of $1,200, which is the amount that was expended last year.

WILLING TO HELP

"Should it be the wish of the citizenry of the Gettysburg area that this annual occasion be continued, Kiwanis is willing to pledge both men and funds, within its ability, to this project that has become very meaningful to our youth each year. It is, however, the opinion of the Gettysburg Kiwanis Club that this must be a community project and receive full coordinated support of all organizations interested in the welfare of our younger generation.

"Manpower, leadership and financial support are available again this year from the Kiwanis Club, but the event will not become a reality unless some new organizational body, representative of all the citizens with the community, displays and makes known a desire for its continuance."

He said he has applied for purchase of an electric typewriter and two adding machines for the business education department under the program.

The new budget, which allots $232,650 for instructional expenditures, $22,780 for administrative expenses and $96,625 for debt service, is based on total income of $440,639, of which $343,650 will come from state sources. Expected real estate sales of $900,000 will return $6,000 and the occupation tax is expected to return $35,287.

Governor William Scranton's budget proposals for human services will also be analyzed by the speaker. T. S. Quinn, Lebanon industrialist who serves as president of the citizens group, said the sessions will be open to the public as a means of furthering public understanding of the many complex health and welfare issues facing the Pennsylvania General Assembly in 1965.

"We believe Pennsylvania public welfare leadership is equal to any in the country and the public needs to be made aware of some of the fine and progressive steps being taken to reduce the effects of dependency, crime and chronic illness in our state."

At the same time the Pennsylvania Citizens Council has an obligation to point out the areas where we are lagging. We will attempt to serve both needs in our April 23 meeting in Harrisburg," Mr. Quinn said.

$40 MILLION LOSS

Damage in Wisconsin and Minnesota, which have so far borne the brunt, has been estimated as high as $60 million by Civil Defense officials. The Red Cross said that 40,000 persons have been displaced in a five-state area, and the worst is still to come in Iowa, Illinois and Missouri.

Minnesota lists 10 deaths and one man missing. Wisconsin counts a man missing.

Nearly 3,500 homes have been damaged or destroyed in Wisconsin and Minnesota, with 2,428 in Minnesota.

LAST FOOD RUN

Milk and bread trucks made their last runs in Marquette, Iowa, to stock stores and restaurants while Gov. Otto Kerner of Illinois and Gov. Warren E. Hearnes of Missouri met at Quincy, Ill., to plan flood defenses for their states.

At Marquette, isolated by flood waters, motel operator Mrs. Dale Reynolds said, "I think everyone has food and supplies to last a week. I just hope we're not cut off more than a week."

A letter from the county commissioners was read asking the Recreation Board to express its support for a Project 70 park in the New Chester to Twin Bridges area.

DISCUSS SCHOOL CHANGES

Among the $2,855.26 in bills approved was one from the Gettysburg Area Merged School Board for $2,018.08 to cover the borough's share of the cost of salaries for recreation director and play supervisors. The board members expressed the hope that in the forthcoming changes in the school district the new boards will continue the custom of the Gettysburg board of permitting use of school facilities for recreation and continue the method currently in use of having the school board pay the director and other staff. The school board is then reimbursed partially by the state and partially by the borough. The program is currently carried out through the Gettysburg Merged Board, rather than through the Gettysburg Joint School System.

In 1966 all of the joint boards will join with the merged board. In addition, if the present state plans for one school district in the county are carried out, the Gettysburg area board will disappear. The question was raised whether a county-wide system will continue the local recreation program agreements, do away with the school share of the recreation program or adopt a countywide recreation program. No decisions could be reached by the Recreation Board. It was agreed the new school board or boards will make the final decisions after the reorganizations are effected.

YWCA PLAYS

Kuhn, Mrs. Virginia Lauver, Mrs. Margaret Weaver, Miss Nina Merrow and Miss Elizabeth Farrar.

Mrs. Buehler spoke of the members of the Danner family whose home was willed by the last surviving member of the family, Mrs. Charles Reinwald, in the 1920s, to be a YWCA. Joining in the recollections were Mayor William G. Weaver and Dr. John B. Zinn.

EVENING OF RECOLLECTION

Mrs. Buehler recalled attending the Sunday School taught in the Danner home by Miss Annie Danner. Mayor Weaver recalled Miss Evie Danner singing at Trinity United Church of Christ here. He also recalled the souvenir stand on Baltimore St. operated by Joel Danner and said the rear of the souvenir stand was a favorite hangout for a number of card playing friends of Danner. Mrs. Buehler recalled meetings from time to time with Mrs. Reinwald, when Mrs. Buehler was a young employee of the Gettysburg National Bank, during which Mrs. Reinwald spoke of her plans to will the home on Lincoln Square for a YWCA.

Dr. Frederick Tilberg told of the decision of the Rotary Club in 1929 to hold its dinner meetings at the YWCA "and we've been here since." The Rotary Club, he recalled, provided some funds for internal changes in the Danner home-YWCA to provide a room large enough for the club meetings.

President C. William Harbaugh presided at the meeting.

PLEADS GUILTY

Robert B. Stoner, Gettysburg R. 1, pleaded guilty in York County court Monday to driving while under suspension. Sentencing was set for May 24.

YOUNGSTER TREATED

William E. Hovis, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Hovis, Fairfield, was treated over the weekend at the Waynesboro Hospital after he hit his head on a couch at home.

The "Christ Church Cruz," newsletter of Christ Lutheran Church, includes in the April issue a letter from Dr. Jacob Heikkinen, professor of new Testament at the Lutheran Seminary, describing his recent visit with Rev. and Mrs. Samuel Schmittner, missionaries to India. The Schmittners reside at Furlough House, Springs Ave., several years ago. Christ Lutheran Church is one of the missionary sponsors in India. Dr. Heikkinen's letter follows in part:

"Yesterday we drove 150 miles in Sam's jeep. The best you can do is 25 miles an hour because of crowded conditions on the highway. The horn is in constant use to clear away oxen, bicyclists, rickshaws, water buffaloes, pigs, pedestrians, goats, sheep, sugar cane wagons, road workers (men and women carrying heavy stones on their heads—all earth moving that I see, as well as transporting of stones and logs, was done by human beings). What is India like? I saw another side yesterday rich farm lands (most productive in the world), huge sugar mills, large tobacco factories from which thousands of women streamed at 5 o'clock as they left their plants. For a long day's work they earn 60c to $1. India has no TV, there are only 100,000 radios in a population of 400 million. Pastors cannot afford to buy radios.

CHRISTIAN HOSTS

"Schmittners were Christian hosts. I realize our church's good fortune in their particular ministry. We talked a lot bumping along in his jeep, driven by his handyman who can cook a meal as well as fix a tire on the road! All their children are in school 700 miles away. Sam had given me malaria pills as a precautionary measure. He drove me 60 miles to the nearest railroad station and stayed with me, though the train was late, to see that I was on the right one. Mrs. Schmittner equipped me with sandwiches.

"In Hong Kong I saw the operations of Lutheran World Service, a renowned institution in the city. It operates a gigantic program in many fields: medicine (trucks with doctors, nurses, drugs), vocational schools, food distribution, housing programs, etc. It is so well accepted that the local papers simply refer to it as LWS."

List Speaker For Book Fair Sunday

McSherrystown—Dr. Theodora Koob, professor of linguistics and neosemantics at Shippensburg State College, will speak at the Book Fair to be held at St. Joseph's Academy, McSherrystown, on Sunday at 2 p.m.

Books from various publishers will be on display. The affair will be open to the public.

Mrs. Koob is the author of several recent children's books. She will have numerous copies of her latest book "Johann of the Trembling Hand."

Books that are listed on local high school and grade school reading lists will be on sale at the academy. They will be in hard cover and paper back edition.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Photoplay Theater: "The Chocolate Soldier," a merry military romance including battle scenes, thrilling moments and mirth provoking situations. The Chocolate Soldier is an elaborate film version of the most successful light opera in the world. It was adapted from the famous play "Arms and the Man" by Bernard Shaw and was produced by an all star cast of Broadway favorites. The original cast was in this film version. In addition to the feature there will be run "When Slippery Slim Went for the Eggs" Essanay comedy, "Love Will Out" Vitaphone comedy drama. Admission Adults 10 cents, children 5 cents.

Walter's Theater: A two-reel keystone comedy "The Sea Nymph" featuring Mabel Normand and Fatty Arbuckle. Also Pathe Daily News No. 24, and "The Adventure at Briarcliff" a two-act romantic comedy with Marguerite Courtot and Tom Moore. Admission 5 cents.

Summer School: L.V. P. F. Sullivan, pastor of St. Ignace Church, has organized a school. The session, from 9 to 12 noon, is held in the new hall. There is an attendance of 51 pupils, some of the children coming quite a distance. The assistants are Eugene Strausbaugh and Miss Rosalie A. Cole. The school will be open three months.

Exercises commemorating the completion of 175 years of existence and activity were held in the Presbyterian Church Wednesday evening. Historical sketches bringing the congregation from its earliest organization in 1740 to the present day were recited and the meeting was of the greatest interest. Rev. F. E. Taylor, pastor, had compiled this history containing hundreds of facts about the early church. Mrs. S. M. Stewart gave a paper on the conduct of the hospital in the church during and following the battle. Rev. James McConaughy, a former member of the congregation, made the concluding address. The music included a solo by Mrs. Roy Zinn, a male quartet, and the singing by the congregation of a hymn composed for the occasion by Miss Julia H. Johnson, of Peoria, daughter of a former pastor of the church.

In compliance with the request of the town council, Judge S. McC. Swope on Wednesday named James W. Eicholtz to fill the unexpired term of Burgess John Raymond, resigned. Mr. Eicholtz has shown in former years his ability to handle this office to the entire satisfaction of the people of the town.

The fire company renewed their pledge of $500 toward the purchase of new apparatus at their meeting Wednesday night. Voluntary subscriptions of a like amount were reported to be on hand. A. B. Plank, Moses Bair and E. C. Shriver will solicit further subscriptions and a food sale is to be held for the same purpose, this committee having in charge, R. H. Long, Meader Williams, John Hartman, C. A. Robinson and H. E. Smiley.

One of the first things which Gettysburg's newly appointed burgess, James E. Eicholtz, expects to accomplish after he takes office, will be the establishment of a call system for the night police officer, operated by means of a red electric light placed in Centre Square and controlled from the United Telephone exchange. Today's Talk

ON ADJUSTING ONESELF
All life is a thing of adjustment. To circumstances, to changes, to sudden emergencies. A balance is struck, and this visualizes the measure of our attainment at the time. The events and confusions of each day have to be appraised and adjusted.

Too many people refuse to face facts. Yet it is from these facts that we get our directions. They are our road signs, pointing out the right procedure. Then it is that the adjustments have to be made. If we make them willingly, without fuss or fury, we are wise.

The instances of loss, disappointment, ill health, and sorrow all call for a readjustment. If promptly made, many a problem disappears, and we can happily and hopefully look life in the face, and without fear or trembling! We can't expect to come out on top by dodging a grave situation, or a responsibility. We must meet it direct and then adjust ourselves to all the details that surround it.

These present days of high taxes, rumors and fears, as well as confusion of thought are nothing unusual. We have experienced them before. They call for sacrifice, courage and personal adjustment. All else remains in the hands of God.

This bodily machine of ours is not unlike any intricate mechanical creation. Just like the machine it needs constant adjustment to keep it in perfect working order. And, of course, this adjustment must start with the mind where all decisions are made. A healthy and happy mind is a blessed possession! The spiritual adjustment that is essential to all instances of failure or sorrow is no easy achievement, but it is always possible. Even our frailties can be marshaled for triumph! In solitude they cluster, are appraised, and given nourishment for strength to meet the emergency at hand.

We must learn to grasp at positives, to alert our minds to the "eternal verities," and adjust our hearts as well to them. There is "a pathway to the stars!"

years, Gettysburg persons desiring to call an officer during the night have had difficulty in securing one. The policeman is expected to cover the entire town twice from the time he reports until he goes off duty the next morning. There is no way whatever of knowing where he may be and no system at all by which he may be found in case of a sudden emergency.

The Conewago Driving and Trotting Association has a force of men and teams at work today at their track near Hunterstown, getting it in shape and placing a guard railing along the scoring stretch. Everything is being placed in first class condition and a model track will be provided for the first matinee which is announced for May 13. The committee has assurances of entries from Hanover, York Springs, and Gettysburg and a good meet is promised.

The proposition to have their borough borrow $5,000 for the erection and equipment of a new school building was defeated by the voters of Abbottstown Saturday by a vote of 36 to 29. The unpopularity of a site proposed for the new building, is said to be the cause of the defeat.

Boring their way into the main room of the George Neely store at Fairfield during the night, thieves ransacked the entire place and got away with loot in the amount of $100 or $150. No trace whatever has been gotten of the men but it is believed that they took away their haul in a large wagon. It required thirty small holes to make an opening in the floor sufficiently large to allow the men to crawl through and the work must have required many minutes. They operated quietly and were not disturbed so that they had plenty of time to go over the stock and make their choice. Residents now believe that they recall hearing wagons in that part of town during the night but at the time did not suspect that anything was wrong.

Just Folks
SIXTY-FIVE
He thought it was pleasure he really desired.
He dreamed of the day he could say: "I've retired."
When young he looked forward (the young always do)
To the time he could wake with no task to renew,
And often when worried and troubled he'd say:
"At sixty-five I'll be able to play."

The day came at last when his labors were eased.
His dream had come true, but he wasn't so pleased.
As he fancied he'd be, for he said with a sigh:
"Can it be that so soon five-and-sixty am I?"
And the company rule, from the ground to the top,
Is that men at that age all their duties must drop.

"I'm strong and I'm able. I'm still at my best,
And all that I need is a few weeks of rest.
My vision is clear and my hearing is good.
Work for twenty years longer I'm sure that I could.
That yearning for play was a youthful desire,
And sixty-five is too soon to retire."

Fear Measles May Affect New Babies

WASHINGTON (AP)—A German measles epidemic early this year may cause the birth of thousands of defective babies, according to "very crude and preliminary estimates" cited to a House subcommittee by a government doctor.

Dr. Richard Masland, director of the National Institute of Neurological Diseases and Blindness, referred to surveys in Houston, Baltimore, Memphis, the District of Columbia and other cities of women who contracted the disease while pregnant.

"Since many of these women have not delivered yet, the full impact of this has not hit the country," he said, "but this is a major tragedy."

PLAN LIVE TV FROM EUROPE AFTER MAY 3

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—The major television networks are excited because after May 2 they can bring in live telecasts from Europe via the Early Bird satellite launched earlier this month. ABC, CBS, and NBC plan live news shows May 3, the first day the satellite is available.

Peter Jennings will broadcast his evening ABC news show from London.

NBC's "Today Show" will scatter its regulars around in London, Paris, Rome and Washington for two-way discussions, and that night, Chet Huntley will broadcast his contribution to the evening news from London.

CBS will broadcast in the early afternoon a "Town Meeting of the World" show with Secretary of State Dean Rusk in London, Barry Goldwater in New York and British and French leaders in their capitals. It will be taped for rebroadcast in the regular "CBS Reports" hour late that evening.

During the first eight weeks—an experimental period—the commercial satellite will be available to the networks only for periods on Mondays.

NBC ON TOP

For the fourth consecutive period—totaling almost two months—NBC has emerged as the leader in the national Nielsen ratings. The most recent, covering the two weeks ending April 4, gives NBC a 20.8 rating, followed by CBS with 19.6 and ABC with 18.9.

There is little change in the programs which Nielsen finds are the 10 most popular. They are, in order, Bonanza, Gomer Pyle, Bewitched, the Fugitive, the Dick Van Dyke Show, Gilligan's Island and Red Skelton (tied), the Walt Disney hour and the Beverly Hillbillies.

Recommended tonight: "Our Man in Washington," NBC, 10-11 (EST)—David Brinkley narrates a second show about the nation's capital in a news special.

Woman Is Too Much For Purse Snatcher

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (AP)—Joy Laney, wife of an Oklahoma City attorney, lost her purse temporarily Monday. A purse snatcher entered her home, grabbed the purse and ran out the door.

Mrs. Laney chased the man for two blocks before catching him and getting the purse back. Neighborhood children also joined in the chase.

Then police, with most of the work already done, arrived on the scene and made the arrest.

Green Footprints Were Not Romance

DETROIT (AP)—Take a statuesque, Italian miss and put her next to a muscular, dynamic young man and what do you have? Love? A Hollywood romance? No. Green footprints. At least that's what early risers here found Monday morning.

The lady was called "Passo di Danza," a Manzu nude sculpture unveiled last year at one of Detroit's busiest corners. The young man is the "Spirit of Detroit," a 25-foot statue on the opposite corner.

Pranksters Sunday night painted 25 gigantic footprints leading from the flower bed in which "Spirit" reposes, across the sidewalk, directly across the street and through the tiny pool that surrounds the young lady.

Report No Request For More UAR Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States has received no new request for aid from the United Arab Republic and no discussions are currently under consideration, the State Department said Monday.

Press officer Robert J. McCloskey commented after reports the U.A.R. has asked for more than $500 million in aid. After a series of incidents, Congress voted last January to cut off foreign aid to the Cairo regime but later voted to let President Johnson determine if such aid is in the U.S. interest.

TRUAX FEARS RIGHT WING

HARRISBURG (AP)—Republican State Chairman Craig Truax says he fears extreme right wing forces are striving to press intolerant attitudes upon the GOP.

In a special memorandum Monday to the state's Young Republicans, Truax said: "These rightist individuals and forces are not products of either of the two major parties. They are simply self-guided rightists who are tightly organized."

"Though they represent only a tiny percentage of the American people, they make their force felt because they have money, follow orders with discipline, and are diligent writers of letters and pamphlets. Suspicion, fear and hate are their stock in trade."

He refrained from citing specific individuals or organizations in his message.

PENNSY RR PROFITS UP

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Pennsylvania Railroad, in a sharp turnaround from 1963, has reported first quarter profits of $4,204,000.

The total is a gain of 33 percent over the first three months of 1964 and compares with a deficit of $2,455,086 in the first quarter of 1963.

Stuart T. Saunders, board chairman of the nation's biggest railroad, said the profit rise came despite a 35-day longshoremen strike, heavier-than-usual snows in some areas and increased wages.

Consolidated earnings totaled $11,792,000 in this year's first quarter, compared to $9,569,000 in the similar 1964 period. Passenger revenues, however, continued to fall. The PRR reported it had $20 million in passenger fares, down almost $2 million from the first quarter of 1964.

MUST LICENSE DRIVER WITH "NO HANDS"

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP)—For the second time this year, the state has been ordered to restore a driver's license to a person without hands.

Judge Richard L. Bigelow, presiding at a hearing in Luzerne County Court Monday, told the state secretary of revenue to issue a 1965 license to Joseph Durko of nearby Avoca.

Durko, a parking lot attendant, had been denied the license because he has been without hands since an industrial accident 33 years ago. He drives by using part of his forearms to guide spokes attached to the steering wheel.

DRIVE 30 YEARS

He has been a licensed operator for more than 30 years, traveling more than 20,000 miles a year, and never had an accident, it was stated in his petition for a hearing.

Judge Bigelow said he found no facts indicating that Durko will be prevented from exercising ordinary control over a motor vehicle.

Earlier this year, the state gave a driving license to Ray Myers, of Lancaster, an armless driver whose license had been repealed because of his physical disability. His license was later reinstated.

Waits Fifty Years To Receive Medal

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Robert E. Galloway earned the Silver Star in the Argonne Forest in World War I but didn't get his medal until after he casually mentioned it so a friend nearly half century later.

The friend was Rep. George Grider, D-Tenn., who asked the Army for help. That resulted in a surprise ceremony Monday with Brig. Gen. Ward S. Ryan, acting 101st Airborne Division commander, pinning the medal on Galloway.

Galloway was wounded in the battle and spent four months in a hospital before he was sent home. Through an oversight the medal was not presented.

Norway's merchant fleet totals 2,823 ships.

BOSTON WINS
SECOND GAME
OVER LAKERS

By BOB HOOBING
Associated Press Sports Writer
BOSTON (AP) — Los Angeles Coach Fred Schaus took stock of the Lakers' plight and pronounced the Boston Celtics "the greatest basketball team ever assembled anywhere."

While predicting his club will bounce back, Schaus minced no words about the Celtics, who are already 2-0 on the path to an expected seventh straight National Basketball Association playoff championship. Boston won 129-123 Monday night in the best-of-7 series which now moves to Los Angeles for games Wednesday and Friday.

"The Celtics are great because their defense is great and defense is the name of this game," said Schaus. "In K.C. Jones, Bill Russell and Tom Sanders, the Celtics have got the greatest defensive men in those positions in the history of the game."

RUSSELL "GREAT"
Center Russell and forward Sanders did a little more than play defense Monday night, however. Each scored 23 points. Johnny Havlicek had 24, Tommy Heinsohn 22 and Sam Jones 20.

Russell had 25 rebounds, led both teams with 10 assists and missed only one of 11 field goal tries.

"Russell played his usual great game," said Laker Jerry West, who hit a game high 45 points. "You just don't get those tap-ins with Russell in there. Too many teams make the mistake of trying to drive through the middle on Boston and Russell's always there."

"I feel a little better but I'll never feel good until it's over," said Boston Coach Red Auerbach. "Heinsohn had one of his really good games. And Russell was his usual good self. Sam was a little off and K.C. wasn't shooting like he was Sunday."

"This was a team effort. We played well but not really well."

VIRGINIA TECH
CUTS ITS TIES

BLACKSBURG, Va. (AP) — Ambitious Virginia Tech has cut its Southern Conference ties and set an athletic course it hopes will lead straight into the arms of the powerful Atlantic Coast Conference.

After 44 years in the Southern, of which it was the last remaining charter member, Tech announced Monday night it was withdrawing June 1. It said bluntly that it had outgrown the league.

And although Tech President T. Marshall Hahn said the college had made no plans other than to operate independently, it was abundantly clear that Tech had ACC membership in mind.

Considerably less clear was whether the eight-member ACC would welcome the 6,500-student college with open arms. Six members must favor any addition to the conference, and not that many did in 1958 when Tech applied formally and didn't make the grade.

SPEEDWAY TO OPEN SEASON
ON SATURDAY

The inaugural stock car racing program at the Lincoln Speedway, Saturday night will headline a 25-lap sportsman-modified and a 20-lap late model feature as the main events.

The 1/4-mile clay racing surface has been completely rebuilt in anticipation of the fast speeds expected to be turned in by the many new cars that have been built for competition at Lincoln.

A new wall along the track in front of the grandstands is being built to further improve the safety facilities. New rest rooms are also among the many improvements to be seen at Lincoln this season.

The late model division is expected to field a host of fast machines that will add to the slambang action usually provided by the eager beaver pilots in the big sedans.

CONTINUE POLICY
The modified division at Lincoln will continue to allow fuel injection on the engines. Promoter Billy Rife has stated, "We will continue to allow fuel injection in our modified division."

Bobby Abel, Bud Folkenroth, Irvin King, Ed Zircle, Paul Miller, Walt Bowman, Ray Kable, Neil Haight, Frankie Thompson, Moe Harden, Clem Lamaster and Willie Musselman are but a few of the outstanding names expected to be in the lineup Saturday.

The action will get underway at 8 p.m. with practice sessions. The first heat will start promptly at 8:30 p.m.

The admission prices remain the same as last season, adults $1.50 and children under 12 years free.

JIM MALONEY
BEATS BRAVES
ON 1-HITTER

By MURRAY CHASS
Add Denis Menke to Jim Maloney's collection of Ellis Burton and Joe Christopher.

Menke got the only hit — a leadoff single in the eighth inning — off Maloney in Cincinnati's 2-0 triumph over Milwaukee Monday.

The one-hitter was the third for the Reds' 24-year-old right-hander in the past three seasons. It also got him back into the regular pitching rotation.

In his first two one-hitters, Maloney was the victim of early singles. Burton got one for the Chicago Cubs as the second batter of the game July 23, 1963. Christopher singled for the New York Mets with one out in the second inning last Sept. 25.

HAD ARM TROUBLE

In spring exhibition games, Maloney compiled a miserable 8.40 earned-run average in 30 innings.

"He was so bad that I had to take him out of our starting rotation," Reds manager Dick Sisler related Monday.

Explaining his poor spring, Maloney said:

"I didn't have any arm trouble. I just wanted to make sure I didn't get any. I just wanted to get in shape and not take any chances of starting the regular season with a sore arm."

CARDS LOSE AGAIN

Menke's single was a looping liner to left field, coming on a 1-2 pitch.

In other National League games, Philadelphia drubbed Houston 8-0 and Chicago whipped St. Louis 7-3.

Besides Menke, three Braves reached base against Maloney, all on walks. Menke was erased on a double play that pinch hitter Hank Aaron hit into — in his first time at bat this season. The Reds won the game on Deron Johnson's two-run homer off Wade Blasingame in the second inning.

WIN FOR BUNNING

Jim Bunning threw a five-hitter at the Astros while the Phillies were roughing up Dick Farrell, an old nemesis.

A four-run third inning, started by Bunning's single and highlighted by Johnny Callison's two-run single, helped end Farrell's six-game winning streak against his former teammates.

Doug Clemens drove in three runs with a single and a homer while Ernie Banks clouted a two-run homer as the Cubs handed St. Louis its fifth loss in six games. Clemens' two-run single was the key hit in a four-run first inning that chased starter Ray Sadecki.

BLAME CANNED
HEAT IN DEATH

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Max Feinberg, 48, local variety store owner, heard a blind man testify Monday that he lost his sight and his wife lost her life because of canned heat sold by Feinberg.

The testimony from Wayne J. Williams, 38, of West Chester, was given at the opening day of Feinberg's trial. He is charged with involuntary manslaughter in the deaths of 31 persons, many of them Skid Row inhabitants, in December, 1963.

He also is charged with violation of the state Pharmacy Act. Feinberg has pleaded not guilty and waived a jury trial. The case is being heard by Judge Charles Guerin.

Williams testified Monday that he bought the canned heat, described as a solidified alcohol and not for drinking purposes, at Feinberg's store. He said it killed his wife, Juanita, on Christmas Day, 1963, and left him blind two days later.

2 Erie Dairies
Received Rebates

ERIE, Pa. (AP) — Officials of two Erie dairies say their firms received rebates from the Erie-Buffalo Division of the Dairy-men's League Cooperative.

O. Carlyle Brock III, vice president of Sanitary Farms Dairy, and Raymond McGarvey, president of Meadowbrook Dairy, testified Monday at a hearing into illegal kickbacks in the state's milk industry.

The hearing, conducted by the state Justice Department and the Milk Control Commission, was recessed and will resume later in Harrisburg.

Brock testified his firm received $200,000 in rebates last year and $128,456 in 1963.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Police are investigating what they term a double murder at a North Philadelphia home. Mrs. Jeanette Shaw, 30, and Aaron Malloy, 30, were found dead of multiple stab wounds Monday.

KOUFAX ELBOW
STANDS TEST

LOS ANGELES (AP) — As morning dawned today, Los Angeles Dodger hearts were swollen because Sandy Koufax' left elbow wasn't.

Koufax' cherished elbow, which hurled nine victorious innings against the Philadelphia Phillies Sunday and was still slim and limber Monday, is nonetheless arthritic and could flare up again, warns Koufax.

Koufax, who threw a touch wild against the Phils, said Monday, "I'm very happy about the condition of my arm," after the precarious joint weathered the workout with no swelling.

But pleasure at the elbow's condition was tempered by Koufax' additional statement that: "I'm not looking for any trouble and I don't expect any. But I have still got arthritis. There's no telling when it will blow up next."

"No matter what I think of it, it's not going to help. It felt good yesterday, it feels good today. Tomorrow, who knows?"

YANKEES ARE WALLOPED BY KANSAS CITY

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jim Gentile, who used to put his foot in his mouth, now is leaving it in the batter's box.

And there's no doubt he hits better that way.

Gentile, the slugging Kansas City first baseman, revealed his change of stance Monday night after belting his third homer of the season and lifting his batting average to .412 as the Athletics walloped the New York Yankees 8-2.

The 30-year-old left-handed swinger was benched when the season started after he asked to leave the land of Finley green and gold because of what he termed unfair publicity given a spring training incident that resulted in a $500 fine.

CHANGED HIS MIND

But the outspoken Gentile has changed his mind.

"I decided the only way to get back in their good graces was to keep my mouth shut and just meet the ball," he said.

And so Gentile, who has never been able to match the 41 homers and 141 runs-batted-in levels he reached at Baltimore in 1961, has curbed his temper and cuffed the ball for seven hits in 17 trips while becoming the first player in the American League to hit three homers.

PINCH HITTERS WIN

He wound up his shelling of the Yankees — 5-for-11 with all three homers in the three-game set — by collecting a single and a towering homer off Whitey Ford that hit 45 feet high on the scoreboard, which is 422 feet from home plate.

While the Athletics were pounding the Yankees, the Chicago White Sox located their home-run touch for the first time and whipped Baltimore 7-2 — but only after tying a league record by using five pinch hitters in one inning.

In the only other game played, Marcelino Lopez posted his first major league victory with a seven-hitter in the Los Angeles Angels' 4-2 victory over Detroit.

The A's pounced on Ford for their first-inning runs and that turned out to be enough for Diego Segui, who kept eight Yankee hits well scattered.

WENT TO BENCH

Rookie Ken Berry, Danny Carter and Moose Skowron homered for the White Sox, who had gone six games without one. But it took considerable managerial maneuvering by Al Lopez to put Chicago ahead to stay.

The White Sox trailed 2-1 in the seventh inning when Lopez went to work. His first two pinch hitters, Don Buford and Carter, didn't produce but regulars Ron Hansen and Berry stroked singles, so Lopez went to the bench again.

He tapped John Romano, who tied the game with a run-scoring single. Dave Nicholson was next but never got to bat. When the Orioles changed pitchers — Dick Hall for Steve Barber — Lopez countered with pitcher Gary Peters instead of Nicholson — and he singled in the lead run.

Marcelino Lopez had a shaky start but did not allow a Tiger past first base after the third inning. The Angels, meanwhile, posted their first victory against Mickey Lolich in six decisions.

Formally Withdraw
From York Circuit

The annual spring meeting of the York County Interscholastic Athletic Association was held Monday evening at Red Lion during which the association accepted with regret the withdrawal of Littlestown and Kennard-Dale from the football program.

Littlestown will play two more football seasons in the association after which it will transfer to the Blue Mountain League. Kennard-Dale will drop from the football league after next season.

A 10-point sportsmanship code was adopted by the organization and trophies presented. West York was re-elected as the association president.

PITCHING — Jim Maloney, Reds, allowed only one hit, a leadoff single by Denis Menke in the eighth inning, as Cincinnati defeated Milwaukee 2-0.

PHILLIES MIND
COLD BUT THEY
CHILL ASTROS

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Johnny Callison wasn't feeling well Monday night, so he promptly drilled a two-run single and a double in the Philadelphia Phillies' 8-0 victory over the Houston Astros.

What happens, then, when the Phillies' star rightfielder is feeling okay?

No kidding, Callison insisted after the game, he had "charley-horses" in both legs, and he blamed the weather: "I can hardly move my legs, maybe it's frostbite."

BUNNING MINDED COLD

He wasn't the only one feeling the cold. Right-hander Jim Bunning, who pitched his sixth shutout since coming to the Phils from the Detroit Tigers last year, said the damp chill kept him near the heater most of the evening.

"I was lucky," Bunning said, summing up his five-hit pitching in 40-degree weather. "We had a heater in the dugout, which I sat near when we were at bat, and I had hot stuff (liniment) all over me."

He was the first to admit his control was "terrible." He walked six Astros, high for him since coming to Philadelphia, and left 12 stranded on the bases.

EXPLORER WILL SEARCH OCEAN FLOOR FOR REDS

By ROBERT D. CLARK
PORT ST. LUCIE, Fla. (AP) — A leading explorer of ocean depths said Monday he plans to ride along the bottom of the mighty Gulf Stream all the way from Florida to Newfoundland.

One object of his trip by research submarine is to see whether the Russians are up to anything on the Continental Shelf, the sloping, underwater land mass beyond the visible coast. Dr. Jacques Piccard told The Associated Press in an exclusive interview.

The Swiss and eight companions also will observe and film marine life and study currents at depths as great as 1,000 feet during their projected six-week voyage.

USE SMALL SUB

Piccard, 44, plans to make the cruise in the Auguste Piccard, a craft named for his late father, or in a modification of the vessel.

He calls the slender, instrument-packed vessel a mesoscap. The 93-foot sub won't use its electric motors but instead will drift along in the one-to-five-knot northward flow of the Gulf Stream itself.

Oceanographers, several members of Congress and high Navy officials have been invited to Port St. Lucie for a coordinating conference Thursday. It may fix a target date for Piccard's probe of the Gulf Stream.

Preliminary work is expected to start this week, using two-man submarines built by newspaper publisher John H. Perry and a 100-foot surface research vessel, the Seadiver, owned by Edwin Link.

Piccard, consultant for an oceanographic filming concern, in 1960 set the world's record for an ocean descent — 35,300 feet into the Pacific's Mariana trench. The craft he made the drop in was used later by the Navy to locate wreckage of its crumpled submarine Thresher.

Link, inventor of the World War II Link pilot trainer, designed an inflatable chamber that was successfully tested off the Bahamas last year as an ocean-floor laboratory for free swimmers.

All three men said they were concerned over the possibility of deep sea developments in the "wet war" off United States shores.

Pravda Warns Need To Support "Peace"

MOSCOW (AP) — The Communist party paper Pravda warned nonaligned nations today that remaining aloof from big power disputes is no longer sufficient proof of their neutrality.

The paper demanded active participation in Soviet-sponsored "peace" efforts.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER
The care a teen takes of her skin determines its beauty in the present and future. Sad to say, too many girls neglect their complexions. The focus is on make-up, and this only compounds the error.

That make-up has virtue, nobody can deny. But the moment you begin to use it, you must begin to pamper your skin. There are several reasons why.

First off, proper care helps to keep the skin in good condition and, unless it is in condition, make-up is less than effective. Secondly, proper care shields the pores from powder clog and other residues.

What is proper care? Well, it's more than a lick and a promise. There are three basic steps:

● Cleansing—with cream or lotion cleanser to dissolve make-up; with soap-and-water washes, followed by thorough rinsings, to remove impurities and rouse circulation.

● Protection—via a film of powder base daytimes; a night cream or lotion.

● Stimulation—in teen years, this is largely a matter of fresh air and exercise.

As for products, be sure to use those formulated for your years and type of skin—normal, dry or oily. For example, baby lotion could serve as bedtime for a clear, normal skin. But an oily skin would require a treatment lotion.

If the skin is seriously blemished, add another step—a visit to your doctor. Above all, remember that the consistent use of correct products is essential to lovely skin. Now and always!

RULE YOUR WAVES

What your hair problem? You'll find a way to overcome it in my 16-page booklet, RULE YOUR WAVES. Advice includes: Beauty treatments for oily, dry and normal hair; ways to manage unruly locks; how to add color and highlights; tips on cutting, permanents and styling; grooming tricks. RED MISSILES COULD CHANGE CONG DEFENSE

By SPENCER DAVIS
WASHINGTON (AP) — The introduction of Soviet surface-to-air missiles of limited range into North Viet Nam would bring a significant but not a drastic change in Communist defense capabilities, U.S. officials said Saturday.

Their prediction followed disclosure that sites apparently are being prepared for missiles in the vicinity of Hanoi, North Viet Nam's capital.

U.S. officials point out that it is likely that some Soviet military personnel will be assigned to the missile operation in North Viet Nam.

NO MIG EVIDENCE

So far, officials said there was no evidence that the Soviet Union would send any Russian-manned MIG 21 jets into North Viet Nam. Communist China has been hoarding the Soviet-built MIG jets Peking has available for its own defense.

U.S. officials pointed out that the missile sites being prepared in the Hanoi area were for use in close defense operations of up to 25 miles' radius. It did not appear that the Russians were preparing to introduce the intermediate ballistic range missiles of the type they brought to Cuba which touched off the October 1962 confrontation between Washington and Moscow over Cuba.

There was skepticism here that the new missile sites in North Viet Nam could become operational within a short time. Johnston did disagree with Democratic administrations on foreign aid and civil rights legislation.

Condolences came from national and state figures for the 68-year-old South Carolinian who rose from tenant farm and cotton mill to the U.S. Senate.

Johnston died in a Columbia hospital of pneumonia after he appeared to be recovering from abdominal surgery.

The President called him "a man with a deep feeling for people, and a man who tried to help others."

ANTIQUE DRIVE

U.S. authorities appeared to consider May 7 a likely target date for a coordinated Communist effort in both North and South Viet Nam. This is the anniversary date of the 1954 defeat of the French army at Dien Bien Phu by the Communist Vietnamese army.

In South Viet Nam the Viet Cong guerrillas appear to be regrouping in preparation for large-scale attacks in the north-central region of the country.

The estimates of Viet Cong strength are now being placed at 38,000 or 39,000 hard core and about 100,000 regional part-time guerrilla forces. This figure is an increase of about 5,000 in the force strength of the Viet Cong since the State Department white paper six weeks ago placed the Viet Cong at about 34,000.

Get More Data On Cosa Nostra Gang

WASHINGTON (AP) — A top Justice Department official says the government is receiving a steady flow of information on the day-to-day operation of the Cosa Nostra crime syndicate.

"We now have high-level informants — both in prison and out," Herbert J. Miller Jr., outgoing chief of the department's criminal division, said in an interview.

Miller said a major breakthrough was made with the testimony of Joseph Valachi, a convicted murderer who defied the syndicate's oath of secrecy to divulge details of its operation.

SEN. JOHNSTON DIES SUNDAY IN COLUMBIA

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — President Johnson Monday led the praise for Sen. Olin D. Johnston, D-S.C., who died Sunday after 20 years in the Senate during which he supported most New Deal, Fair Deal and New Frontier proposals.

Johnston did disagree with Democratic administrations on foreign aid and civil rights legislation.

Condolences came from national and state figures for the 68-year-old South Carolinian who rose from tenant farm and cotton mill to the U.S. Senate.

Johnston died in a Columbia hospital of pneumonia after he appeared to be recovering from abdominal surgery.

The President called him "a man with a deep feeling for people, and a man who tried to help others."

UNITES TODAY

The body lay in state Monday in the rotunda of the state capitol. Johnston was chairman of the Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee and a ranking member of the Agriculture Committee and the Judiciary Committee.

He was first operated on last Jan. 22, when surgeons intended to remove an aneurysm, or blister, on the aorta, the larger artery from the heart. A cancerous intestinal tumor was found and removed, and the operation for the blister was postponed until April 8.

Johnston was governor 1935-38 and again from 1943 until he won a Senate seat in 1944, taking office early in 1945.

Funeral services were at Southside Baptist Church in Spartanburg at 11 a.m. today. Burial will be in Barker's Creek Church Cemetery near Anderson, where his parents are buried.

funds can be spent—so much for rent, so much for clothes, so much for food," said state Welfare Secretary Arlin Adams Saturday.

"We must give the lump sum to the recipient, so we can only work at the problem from the seller's end," he said.

The aim, he added, is to "keep welfare at a minimum and to make sure the taxpayer gets full value for his dollar."

The bill, which Adams said already has received encouragement from both parties in Harrisburg, would provide for a minimum fine of $50 for a first offense, $100 for the second offense, and $150 for the third. Taproom operators convicted of violations could find their licenses endangered, he added.

Adams said the bill should pass easily in the legislature.

ROMNEY URGES NEW PROGRAM TO WIN PEACE

NEW YORK (AP) — Michigan Gov. George Romney declared Monday that the United States must blaze new paths in progress sharing to win world peace and end domestic economic deadlock.

The Republican governor called his twin programs "partnership through progress sharing." He said the consumer should regain the driver's seat at home and that cooperative private investments should replace certain government handouts abroad.

In remarks prepared for delivery to the annual meeting of The Associated Press, Romney called President Johnson's "Great Society" a "paternalistic cloak and a 'great government'" that does not have answers to the nation's growing problems.

"DESTROY US"

He warned that unless this country can "change the world's false notions of what we are, and share our principles and our progress with those who want, they will join with our enemies and destroy us."

Romney—a second term governor mentioned prominently as a possible presidential candidate in 1968—outlined this concept of worldwide "partnership through progress sharing."

"Our leadership must be based on example, persuasion and partnership, rather than on compulsion, exploitation and domination. Americans must learn, before it is too late, that other nations—whether they are relatively rich or objectly poor—do not want our domination or our handouts, and yet they desperately need our help."

PARTNERSHIP

Foreign operations, he said, should be put on a partnership rather than absentee-owner basis. "It is only right and reasonable that other nations consider their markets theirs, not ours."

He declared that "most of the economic development aid which flows from this country to the other nations of the world should be in the form of private investment, rather than governmental handouts."

"People to people and company - to company relationships breed fewer resentments and accomplish more than government to government arrangements ever can."

Domestically, he told more than 1,000 new executives, the United States must move away from what he called the "two Frankensteins" of "monopolis-

Peace Theme Of Easter Echoes Around World

Hold Easter Fete At White House

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite rain, the annual Easter egg-rolling spree on the White House south lawn was officially held Monday.

The White House made the decision a little more than half an hour before the 10 a.m. opening, while a group of fans—in Texas hats—waited to get in.

Last year, the Easter egg rolling was called off because of an unseasonable five-inch snowfall in Washington. This year, even though the green south lawn was soggy and wet from hours of rain, the White House made the decision to carry on.

President and Mrs. Johnson were still in Texas, where they are spending the Easter weekend.

Young Wife Found Dead In Kitchen

MAPLE SHADE, N.J. (AP)—Mrs. Darlene Mason, 22, was found shot to death just after dawn Monday in the kitchen of her home here. Later, her husband, Harry, 25—a bullet wound in his left arm—was brought to the Maple Shade police station by a neighbor.

Police said they could not determine immediately how Mason's wound was inflicted. A .38 caliber revolver was found next to the body.

Patrolman George R. Roats found the body after a telephone call from an anonymous woman.

Nicholas Marino, 34, a neighbor, brought the husband to the police station.

Patrolman John J. Baugher reported Marino said Mason told him that Mrs. Mason shot him and then turned the weapon on herself.

Winter Storms Plague Europe

LONDON (AP) — Snow, gales and icy winds struck scattered parts of Western Europe Monday turning spring Easter tide back to winter.

Snow fell over England, Scotland and Wales.

Seventeen percent of Australia's exports go to Japan.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
An Easter theme of peace echoed around the world today. It was sounded on a windy hill in Korea, at an outdoor Mass in St. Peter's Square in Vatican City and in a tiny Episcopal church in the small central Texas town of Blanco.

The serenity and joy of Easter Sunday prevailed in the traditional Easter parades, topped by colorful ones in New York, Atlantic City and Philadelphia.

In Korea, some 200 American servicemen and 50 Korean orphans knelt before a white wooden cross on White Cross Hill to say Easter prayers for eternal peace.

HEAR POPE PAUL

A half-million persons braved a cold wind and rain in St. Peter's Square to hear the annual Easter message of Pope Paul VI at an outdoor Mass.

The 67-year-old pontiff, in a plea clearly aimed at the fighting in Viet Nam, urged a negotiated end to "every war and guerrilla operation."

He asked for rejoicing on the Christian feast day commemorating the resurrection of Christ. He said it should be a time of optimism, inspiring the world toward peace and justice, and the desire "of a new start in the history of man."

President Johnson and the First Lady heard a sermon dealing solely with the Easter theme by the lay vicar of St. Michaels and All the Angels Church in Blanco, Tex.

Vicar Edwin A. Thayer urged in his sermon: "Let us see if we cannot put more into this Easter message than a pretty new hat or a pretty new suit."

"HE IS RISEN"

The sermon was put into a single sentence capsule:

"The three-fold Easter message is: God rules, Jesus lives, God loves, and it is proclaimed anew in the cry, He is risen."

Tens of thousands of West Berliners streamed to East Berlin to spend Easter Sunday with their loved ones whom the Communists do not allow to visit the West.

Seventeen percent of Australia's exports go to Japan.

Mrs. J. P. Kennedy Bears Mother's Sorrow In Diligent Aid To Mentally Retarded

EDITOR'S NOTE — Amid triumph and tragedy, the remarkable Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy daily carries another sorrow — that of her mentally retarded daughter, Rosemary. But there's no time for self-pity. Mrs. Kennedy is busy working to help the thousands of others afflicted as is Rosemary.

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy, looking youthful for all her 75 years, settled herself in an arm chair, and spoke of one of the many sorrows that have punctuated her remarkable life.

—A child among the several in her family who was tapped by misfortune.

—A young Kennedy whose very being called attention to and improved the welfare of a forgotten group, Rosemary, her mentally retarded daughter.

It was midmorning when Rose Kennedy entered the study of her husband, the former ambassador to Great Britain.

FAMILY MEMENTOS

She sat in an unpretentious arm chair, and, having strained a tendon, rested one leg gently on a leather foot sling. In the small book-lined room around here were mementos of her famous family.

Over the fireplace just slightly awry was a framed copy of the inaugural address of her son, the late President John F. Kennedy. Atop the television set were snapshots of the ambassador in healthier days romping with grandchildren. There were also pictures of sons and daughters posed with their offspring.

OFFICIATED DAUGHTER

Rosemary was not destined to have the kind of exuberant Kennedy family life pictured there. "We don't usually talk about it," Mrs. Kennedy began hesitantly, focusing her clear blue eyes on some faraway spot. What she meant was that the family does not ordinarily elaborate.

The fact that the Kennedy family had not chosen to remain completely silent has played an important part in the growth of hospitals, institutions and research programs for at least some of the nation's six million mentally retarded.

DEVELOPED SLOWLY

Rosemary, now 46, was the first daughter and the third Kennedy born to Joseph Patrick and Rose Kennedy. Her elder brothers, Joseph and John, as well as the sister to come later, Kathleen, are now dead.

"Rosemary was one of a large family and so she ran and played and seemed a happy child, and we didn't notice anything wrong at first," said Mrs. Kennedy. "Oh, she would seem a little slow at times — but there is usually always one child in a large family who develops a little less rapidly than the rest."

But as the pretty, blonde child grew older, Mrs. Kennedy began to realize something was wrong.

DIFFICULT FOR PARENTS

"Then as she matured even more it got to be even more difficult. It is always more difficult for the parent, you know."

"Privileges were a problem too. Why couldn't she take a boat out alone when her brothers and sisters were able to do so? These were conflicts in the family, things she could not understand."

"Eventually, it was obvious that she felt more comfortable, was a great deal happier with youngsters like herself, and well, we placed her in this Catholic home."

The Kennedy family could afford trained help and institutional care. Mrs. Kennedy has always been keenly aware of this.

ESTABLISHED FUND

"When I was campaigning for Jack," she recalled, "people would come up and thank me for the Joseph Kennedy Foundation we established as a memorial to my oldest son. We did it because he was very fond of children, and because this business of retardation which was a problem to us had affected so many children."

Within a few years the Kennedy Memorial Foundation discovered that it could not possibly build hospitals and homes fast enough to care only for retarded children.

As a consequence the foundation now emphasizes research, public health education, all preventative measures.

Mrs. Kennedy appears occasionally at fund-raising benefits. Since her husband's stroke several years ago, she has been unable to attend as many as she would like. She describes his condition as "only fair."

Recently, she has made some television appearances to ease the minds of mothers of retarded children who may worry about the possibility of bearing still another retarded child. She said the chances are slim. In her speech Mrs. Kennedy points out that daughter Rosemary was one out of nine children. The other eight included a president and two U.S. senators.

"Was there a Divine reason for the seeming misfortune of Rosemary in the great Kennedy family?"

"I have often thought of it that way," replied Mrs. Kennedy.

Easter Tragedy Takes Two Lives

TACOMA, Wash. (AP) — For Louis Leeth of nearby Puyallup, Wash., Sunday will always be "a horrible Easter."

Leeth, 34, was driving his daughter, Debra, 4, critically ill with tubercular meningitis, to a Tacoma hospital in the family car.

She was cradled in the arms of her mother, Anna, 37, when the speeding car was involved in a collision with another at a busy Tacoma intersection.

Mrs. Leeth was thrown from the car and killed.

Leeth hailed a passing motorist who took him and Debra the rest of the way to the hospital. Police later told him Debra died shortly after arriving at the hospital.

At home later with his seven surviving children, Leeth said: "I still can't believe it."

2 Reporters Win Memorial Award

WASHINGTON (AP) — A series of articles on the Bobby Baker investigation has won reporters John Barron and Paul B. Hope the $1,000 annual Raymond Clapper Memorial Award. The series appeared in the Washington Evening Star. Hope, 40, is still with the Star. Barron, 34, has since joined the Washington staff of the Reader's Digest.

Baker resigned as secretary to the Senate Democratic majority shortly before an inquiry was ordered into his outside financial activities.

The winning entry, one of 36, was announced Saturday during a meeting of the American Society of Newspaper Editors. Raymond Clapper was a Washington columnist who died in a World War II aircraft crash in the South Pacific.

DECLARES NO MILK IS FREE OF PESTICIDES

WASHINGTON (AP) — "No milk available on the market today, in any part of the United States, is free of pesticide residues," an exhaustive study of pesticides by the Agriculture Department discloses.

The report cited interviews with many scientists in the field, both government-sponsored and private. It added that these authorities said, "There is no evidence that minute traces of any pesticide in milk have either an immediate (acute) or cumulative (chronic) ill effect on human health."

Furthermore, the report said, federal and state health authorities have determined that "samples of mothers' milk contained amounts of pesticide residues far in excess of the pesticide residues permitted by the FDA (Food and Drug Administration) in cows' milk."

Breast-fed babies are ingesting these residues in their mothers' milk because the mother ingests foods that legally contain pesticide residues, the report said.

Yet it added that "the study concluded that there were no ill effects on the babies as a result of the pesticide residue in the mothers' milk."

The report was included with testimony of Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman before a House Appropriations Subcommittee March 19, and was made public today.

The report was in the nature of an over-all historical review of the pesticide problem, and traced much of the public con-

BASIC STEEL INDUSTRY HAS INTERIM PLAN

By BOB VOELKER
Associated Press Writer
PITTSBURGH (AP) — The basic steel industry had before it today a proposed interim agreement that would extend the United Steelworkers' May 1 strike deadline.

Reliable sources said the union's proposal, made late Monday afternoon, was based on President Johnson's recommended 3.2 per cent annual wage increase guideline.

This would mean about a 14-cent hourly wage boost and a three-cent cost-of-living hike, the sources said. Steelworkers currently average $4.40 an hour in wages and benefits.

REPORT REJECTION

There was no confirmation of a report the industry had rejected the offer.

It was not known if the USW proposed any definite length for the interim agreement.

Last week the union rejected an industry proposal calling for a five-cent hourly boost under an interim agreement of from 60 days to six months.

The union's 170-member Wage Policy Committee will meet Thursday.

President David J. McDonald announced the meeting Monday but didn't say what the committee will be asked to consider.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A 23-year-old woman is in University of Pennsylvania hospital after being robbed and raped in her center-city apartment, police said. The victim told police Monday the man, posing as a workman sent to measure the windows, assaulted her, raped her and fled.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Smith, Kline & French Laboratories reports net income in the first three months of 1965 was $11,094,000 equal to 76 cents a share, compared with $8,662,000 and 59 cents last year. The big pharmaceutical firm also said Monday that sales during the same period this year totaled $61,005,000, up 20 per cent from the $51,943,000 last year.

SEE U.S. LOSSES IN INDONESIA

WASHINGTON (AP) — A presidential commission has concluded that the day of U.S. foreign investment capital in Indonesia is over and the outlook is dim for some $480 million worth of American oil and rubber investments in that country.

The mission headed by U.S. Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker is preparing its report after talks with President Sukarno and other Indonesian government leaders.

U.S. officials said the number of Americans in Indonesia, now in the vicinity of 2,000, will decline sharply if the Jakarta government carries out its announced plan to take over the active operational management of U.S. oil and rubber properties.

ARMY TO QUELL STUDENT RIOTS IN SOUTH KOREA

By C. S. CHIN
SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — South Korea's government will use the army to quell student demonstrations protesting the talks with Japan if the police are unable to control the demonstrators, high Defense Ministry sources reported Monday.

The sources said defense authorities have reached an understanding on use of troops with the head of the U.N. Command, U.S. Gen. Hamilton H. Howze, who has operational control of the Korean forces.

HUNDREDS INJURED
Hundreds of police and demonstrators, mostly students, were injured last week in repeated clashes.

The government already has mobilized troops under the Capitol Security Command to help police guard such government buildings as President Chung Hee Park's official mansion and the compound housing government ministries.

A spokesman for Howze said he had released additional troops to the operational control of the Korean army.

Demonstrations today were on a small scale and generally orderly although the day was the fifth anniversary of the 1960 student uprising which led to President Syngman Rhee's overthrow. The government and small groups of students held separate anniversary ceremonies.

PLEDGE QUIET MARCH

Some 200 students of the Seoul National University marched silently from their campus for about two miles. Riot police blocked the march for a time but let it proceed when student leaders promised it would be peaceful.

About 500 high school students demonstrated in Taegu, 130 miles southeast of Seoul. Police dispersed them.

The talks to normalize relations between South Korea and Japan are now nearing completion after dragging on for 14 years. Park has shown no sign of being deterred by the demonstrations.

The demonstrators particularly oppose the virtual abolition of the Rhee fishing line, which

Leader Of Muslims Returns To Phoenix

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Black Muslim leader Elijah Muhammad has returned to his home in Phoenix from Chicago, marking his first visit to the Arizona city since the assassination of his former lieutenant, Malcolm X, in New York last February.

Two bodyguards flanked Muhammad as he left a jet airliner at the airport upon his arrival Sunday.

MARINER 4 SETS RECORDS

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Mariner 4 spacecraft is chalking up some major scientific findings on its historic dash toward the planet Mars. They include the best measurements yet made on the outer fringes of the deadly Van Allen radiation belts surrounding the earth.

This was reported Monday by scientists of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration at opening sessions of the American Geophysical Union annual meeting here.

Launched Nov. 28, Mariner 4 is scheduled to reach the vicinity of Mars on July 14. It has now traveled 221,330,000 miles on its 325,000,000-mile journey to the planet.

The report on the Van Allen radiation probe was made by Dr. James A. Van Allen of the State University of Iowa, who discovered the radiation belts—still considered a potential threat to manned space flight—a few years ago.

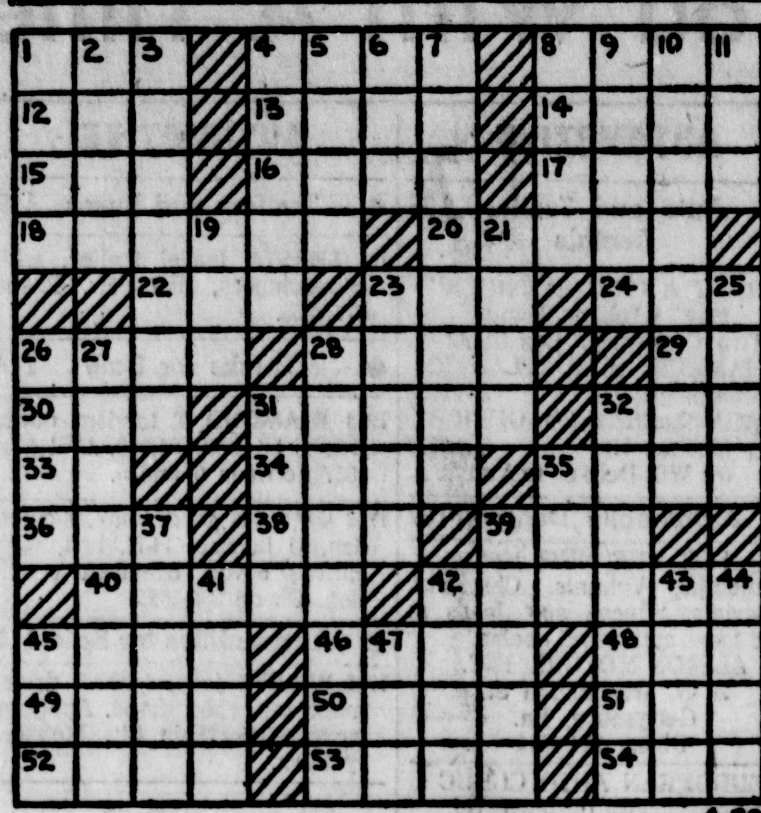

He indicated Mariner's "trapped radiation detector" instrument had picked up evidence the belts extend nearly 100,000 miles into space from the earth.

The same instrument recorded evidence indicating the earth's magnetic field extends at least to a distance of 104,000 miles from the earth.

SOVIET WARNS AGAINST GASES

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin warned the United States Monday that the use of napalm and phosphorus bombs and gas in Viet Nam "may invite retaliation in kind."

Kosygin made the remark during a bitter attack on American policy in South Viet Nam which he said was "fraught with unforeseen consequences."

Kosygin, speaking at a Soviet-Mongolian friendship rally for visiting Mongolian President Yumzhagin Tsedenbal, denounced the use of napalm and phosphorus bombs and what he called "poison gases" by anti-Communist forces in South Viet Nam.

"The use by aggressors of these or other means of warfare may invite retaliation in kind," he said.

The United States has denied that it has used poison gas in South Viet Nam. It says it has furnished the South Vietnamese nonlethal riot control cases like tear gas.

RUN INTO SYNAGOGUE

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — An automobile crashed into a synagogue in suburban Bywood before dawn Monday, killing Miss Barbara Harris, 22, of Springfield, Delaware County. The police said she was a passenger in a car driven by Richard Gortian, 23, of Drexel Hill. Gortian suffered serious head injuries.

Shastri Accuses Chinese Embassy

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri accused the Communist China Embassy in New Delhi of "objectionable activities." He said his government is considering ways of dealing with it.

Shastri told Parliament that the embassy "is functioning in a manner not at all correct." He asked the members not to press him for the present on what measures his government proposes to take.

Oswald Children At Easter Hunt

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Lee Harvey Oswald's daughters, June, 3, and Rachael, 2, had their first Easter egg hunt at the Church of God of Prophecy.

The girls gathered eggs with children from the 137-member congregation, according to the Houston Post. Marina Oswald, 23, widow of the accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy, went to Houston for the holiday with the daughter of the Rev. B. F. Mathis, the church's pastor.

The pastor's daughter, Cora Lee Smith, is a neighbor and close friend of Mrs. Oswald in the Dallas suburb of Richardson. Mrs. Smith and the Oswalds returned home Sunday afternoon.

U.S. KEEPING WATCHFUL EYE ON RED CHINA

DA NANG, South Viet Nam (AP) — The United States looks Red China over regularly with pilotless reconnaissance jets launched from U.S. Air Force lanes and recovered on Vietnamese beaches.

The missions are flown to keep U.S. intelligence posted on Chinese military moves. Such intelligence is critical now as the Viet Nam war heats up and the question of possible Chinese entry into the conflict looms.

"Operation Blue Streak" has become more or less an open secret, although details of the flights are still classified. No military sources here would discuss the amount or value of information gathered by the operation.

TARGET DRONES

The roughly 12-foot-long jets, which resemble target drones, are carried under the wings of C130 transport planes and launched over the South China Sea. They are guided, controlled and returned for their parachute landing through facilities at powerful radar installations.

After launching, the drones are sent over Communist China to photograph Chinese troops movements and military installations and the like, military informants said.

High-flying U2 manned reconnaissance jets also are stationed in Viet Nam and have intelligence missions.

Military sources say the little drones are harder to hit than the U2's and fly nearly as high. They do not, however, have nearly the amount of photographic or electronic capability of the U2's.

Because they can be flown near the Chinese coast before release, the drones are capable of making fairly deep penetrations before turning back for landing by parachute.

One source happened to be near the landing zone recently and saw a number of U.S. Army helicopters hovering in a beach area. As he watched, he saw a drone descending below a parachute that returns it to the earth without destroying the information gathering equipment.

The C130 Hercules mother ships have been observed for months flying with the reconnaissance jets from Bien Hoa air base near Saigon and more recently from Da Nang.

U.S. Army armed helicopters cover the beach areas where the drones land to insure that the Viet Cong do not get to them first.

FARM PROGRAM IS FACING NEW OPPOSITION

By OVID A. MARTIN
AP Farm Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson Administration faces strong opposition to its legislative recommendation that crop-land diverted from production of feed grains under a government surplus-reducing program be allowed to grow soybeans.

Under this plan, made in farm proposals President Johnson sent to congress last week, the amount of such diversions would be left to the secretary of agriculture.

So far, many farm leaders as well as commodity traders and congress members have expressed criticism of the soybean proposal. They say they fear it could lead to a surplus of a crop which for years has been free of overproduction and which has enjoyed favorable income to producers.

The government's crop insurance program is having its least favorable experience in insuring grower incomes from fruits and its most favorable experience in insuring production of most grains, tobacco and cotton.

An audit of the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation's activities for the 1963 crop year—the last for which complete operations are known—showed farmers paid premiums totaling $314.7 million on 22 crops for which protection was offered.

Indemnities paid for losses incurred from drought, floods, hail, insects and other natural causes totaled $294 million.

The insurance program wound up in the black on 13 commodity programs and in red on 9. Those which ended in the black included apple, tobacco, and wheat. Those in the red included citrus fruit.
